Glad to have you drop on by. This here is my little space on the internet where I show off my photographs.

I travel around the world, and around the block to find fun things to snap. It could be buddy's puppy, or a whole new look at that spray painting on the wall. The Calgary Tower, or the Great Wall of China. I've snapped it all, and I'll let you have a peak at a few of those.

So let's get right to the gallery .
